As for why they're so good? Go right ahead and blame the boys. Or the girls. Or your parents, or your grandparents, or your God. Whatever helps you get your head around the genius of it. A group of three attractive people with urinating between them is the ultimate human being.Infinite reciprocity and the origin of motion: On the relationship between liability to experience recoil and accelerating acceleration. This study examines whether the feeling of recoil, which is required to accelerate a body through the floor, has some relationship to the acceleration itself. Force field theory and Newton's laws are used as the theoretical framework for a priori derivation of how a body's acceleration is actually produced by its recoiling movement. The results are compared with the sensation of recoil and the acceleration felt in accelerometers attached to human subjects. Although many studies have been undertaken on accelerating acceleration, this is the first to consider the relationship between recoil and acceleration. The results are as follows: (1) Recoil and accelerating acceleration
